Presents:

The Impact of Parental Incarceration on Children in the Child Welfare System: A Train the Trainer Model

October 16-17, 2013

9 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Kellogg Hotel and Conference Center, East Lansing, Michigan

This train the trainer curriculum is designed to take participants through the experience of delivering the “Impact of Parental Incarceration on Children in the Child Welfare System” to child welfare professionals. This two-day program will provide the knowledge and skills needed to facilitate trainings that will enable child welfare professionals to effectively respond to the needs of children who are impacted by parental incarceration. Each section of the curriculum will be reviewed from the perspective of: the child, the caregiver, the incarcerated parent, and the caseworker. The course will also address basic training and adult education principles, use of technology, and how to overcome common training challenges.

Target Audience: All child welfare professionals interested in facilitating local trainings on parental incarceration.
